2019 SOUTHBAY THEME
All Aboard! (Isaiah 54:2)

SEPTEMBER:
Book of Colossians /
Book of Genesis

Good morning!

Welcome to Southbay.

We're glad you're here.

If you are new, please fill out our visitors' card to get more connected. Before service, our ambassadors will be in the lobby to direct you and answer any questions you may have about Southbay.

Please exit through the side doors after service and join us upstairs for coffee and some light refreshments.

Sunday Growth Groups

1130am in the Worship Center, 2nd floor. Drop-ins are welcome!

ADULTS

EVANGELISM AS EXILES

Room 403 (Facilitator: Kevin Do)

Suffering and exclusion should be normal in a believer's life. This was certainly Jesus's experience. And it's the experience of countless Christians around the world today.

No matter your social location or set of experiences, 1 Peter wants to redefine your expectations and reinvigorate your hope. Whether we're in positions of power or weakness, influence or marginalization, all of us are called to live and witness as exiles in a world that's not our home.

MOMS' LIFE GROUP

Room 402 (Facilitator: Mary Ann Shui)

God can use "radical, ordinary hospitality" to bring the gospel to our lost friends and neighbors. Such hospitality sees our homes as not our own, but as God's tools for the furtherance of his kingdom as we welcome those who look, think, believe, and act differently from us into our everyday, sometimes messy lives--helping them see what true Christian faith really looks like.

MEN'S LIFE GROUP

Room 400 (Facilitator: Isaac Tong)

God can use "radical, ordinary hospitality" to bring the gospel to our lost friends and neighbors. Such hospitality sees our homes as not our own, but as God's tools for the furtherance of his kingdom as we welcome those who look, think, believe, and act differently from us into our everyday, sometimes messy lives--helping them see what true Christian faith really looks like.

EVANGELISM AS EXILES

Facilitator: Kevin Do

The days of cultural Christianity are fading. It's time to rethink normal.

Suffering and exclusion are normal in a believer's life. At least they should be. This was certainly Jesus's experience. And it's the experience of countless Christians around the world today.

No matter your social location or set of experiences, the biblical letter of 1 Peter wants to redefine your expectations and reinvigorate your hope. MEN'S LIFE GROUP

Facilitator: Isaac Tong

Both the Moms' and Men's Life Groups will be going through The Gospel Comes with a House Key.

God can use "radical, ordinary hospitality" to bring the gospel to our lost friends and neighbors. Such hospitality sees our homes as not our own, but as God's tools for the furtherance of his kingdom as we welcome those who look, think, believe, and act differently from us into our everyday, sometimes messy lives--helping them see what true Christian faith really looks like.

STUDENTS

HIGH SCHOOL SUNDAY SCHOOL

Facilitator: Philip Shui (Room 405)

Women Who Trusted God (Unit 1): Faithful women. Faithful God. Faith moves us beyond belief to action, but what does that look like? In this study, we'll meet several godly women with a faith story to share, just as we too have a faith story worth sharing. For the next six weeks, we'll walk alongside these faithful women whose personal stories demonstrate God's faithfulness, and we'll look at what He will do when we trust in Him.

Living a Godly Life in an Ungodly World (Unit 2): We live in a world that does nothing to encourage our walk with Christ. In fact, many times the world actively opposes anyone who seeks to live a godly life for Christ, but we can stand strong. In the Old Testament, the life of King Asa shows us how to face life head on, and his example points to the value of focusing on God and living in dependence on Him. By the way he lived, God used King Asa to influence those around him, as well as future generations. Even though we too will face challenges, we can live godly lives.

JUNIOR HIGH SUNDAY SCHOOL

6th Grade Teacher: Tim Chen (Room 406)

7th & 8th Grade Teacher: Willi Wong (Room 404)

This class continues the three-year chronological journey through the storyline of Scripture. This time we will focus on the period following the time of the judges, with particular attention given to the kingships of Saul, David, and Solomon.
